

REMARKS

Claims 2, 3, 7-9 and 12-15 have been allowed. In the Examiner's Amendment mailed August 29, 2006, the Examiner made amendments to the claims that placed the application in a condition for allowance. Upon reviewing the Examiner's Amendment, Applicant has noticed that the word "complimentary" appearing in lines 8 and 11 of claim 14 of the Examiner's Amendment should be spelled "complementary." The same correction should be made in claim 7 as well. Applicant submits this amendment in order to correct this typographical error.

Applicant appreciates the courtesies extended in a telephone interview on August 15, 2006, in which the differences between U.S. Patent No. 4,660,342 to Salisbury and the present invention were discussed, however, no agreement as to claim allowance was reached. A subsequent interview took place on August 18, 2006, in which it was agreed that an amendment to the claims in the form of the Examiner's Amendment mailed August 29, 2006 would place the application in a condition for allowance.

On August 31, 2006, Applicant telephoned the Examiner to bring to his attention the above-referenced spelling error. In response, the Examiner recommended that Applicant file this amendment pursuant to 37 C.F.R. §1.312 to correct the error.

Respectfully submitted,

s/Stephen S. Ashley, Jr./
